

Communicate On All Levels

Find the connection, the common ground, but stay on your path.

Be true to yourself and your most precious inner voice.

Tap into your soul, and there - where peace abounds -

Communicate on all levels.

Communicate to all things in all ways.

Through the sharing of you there will be others,

emotions, and increased growth for all.

Talk. Don't talk. Feel. Heal.

Open your channels. Try touch.

Enjoy the darkness. Master your art.

Bring to the table a uniqueness who is undoubtedly you.

Give thanks and when you're done,

dig deeper where you'll find a long lost friend.

Touch all with your soul.

Welcome all into your light.

Guide those who appear lost

as they will lead you to an even greater happiness.
